

The Department of Criminal Justice in the College of Health and Public Affairs invites applicants for two tenure-earning or tenured faculty appointments at the assistant or associate professor rank to begin in fall 2018.

The successful candidates will demonstrate an ability to contribute to the department's core areas of law enforcement, corrections, and/or juvenile justice. In particular, the department is looking to hire social scientists with a broad teaching portfolio and experience teaching face-to-face and online classes. The position responsibilities include: 1) production of scholarship, 2) graduate and undergraduate instruction, 3) dissertation service, 4) pursuit of external funding to support research, 5) contribution to departmental initiatives, 6) service to the discipline, community and/or university, and 7) evidence of commitment to community-engaged research. The teaching load is 2 courses per semester. Preference will be given to candidates with a demonstrated ability to publish in top-tier academic journals, teach criminal justice classes, and/or secure external funds.

The University of Central Florida (UCF) is one of the largest universities in the country and is located in Orlando near Atlantic and Gulf coast beaches and world-famous tourist attractions. The Department of Criminal Justice employs 33 full-time faculty, with an impressive student body made up of approximately 1,300 undergraduate majors and 290 master's degree students. The faculty comprises productive scholars who are active in ACJS, ASC, and regional societies. The department was recently awarded a doctoral program in Criminal Justice, with the first class of students beginning in the fall of 2015. For more information about the department, please visit the homepage at <http://www2.cohpa.ucf.edu/crim.jus/>.

Candidates must hold a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or a closely-related discipline from an accredited institution. ABD applicants may be considered, though a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or a closely-related discipline from an accredited institution is required by the start of the appointment. A Juris Doctorate or terminal master's degree will not be considered.

In order to be eligible for a tenured appointment upon hire, the successful candidate(s) must have a distinguished record of scholarly achievement and teaching experience commensurate with a tenured faculty appointment at the rank of associate professor.

The university requires that all applicants apply and submit all supporting documents through the UCF Online Recruitment System at <https://www.jobswithucf.com>. No paper applications will be considered. Applicants must complete the online Faculty Applicant Affirmation form and submit the following: (1) a letter of application (i.e., cover letter) describing qualifications for the position; (2) a curriculum vitae; (3) copy of transcripts; and (4) contact information for three [up to five] professional references. The selected candidate will be required to provide official transcripts within thirty days of hire date.

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the positions are filled. Candidates will not be considered until all of the above materials are received. Candidates are responsible for ensuring all materials have been uploaded correctly.

For questions about the position, please contact Dr. Kristina Childs, search committee chair at kristina.childs@ucf.edu.

UCF is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply, including minorities, women, veterans and individuals with disabilities. As a Florida public university, UCF makes all application materials and selection procedures available to the public upon request.