

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

LECTURER FACULTY POSITION AVAILABLE
Department of Criminal Justice
University of Central Florida
Position Number # 33121

The Department of Criminal Justice in the College of Health and Public Affairs invites applicants for a faculty appointment at the lecturer rank to begin in Fall 2018.

The successful candidate will demonstrate an ability to contribute to the department's core areas of law enforcement, corrections, and/or juvenile justice, as well as contribute to methods/statistics. In particular, the department is looking to hire a social scientist with a broad teaching portfolio and experience teaching online and face-to-face classes. The position responsibilities include: 1) graduate and undergraduate instruction; 2) contribution to departmental initiatives; 3) service to the discipline, community and/or university; and 4) evidence of helping build a program through advising, mentoring and community engagement. The teaching load is 4 courses per semester.

The University of Central Florida (UCF) is one of the largest universities in the country and is located in Orlando, Florida near Atlantic and Gulf coast beaches and world-famous tourist attractions. The Department of Criminal Justice employs 33 full-time faculty, with an impressive student body made up of approximately 1,300 undergraduate majors and 290 master's degree students. The faculty comprises productive scholars who are active in ACJS, ASC, and regional societies. The department was recently awarded a doctoral program in Criminal Justice, with the first class of students beginning in the fall of 2015. For more information about the department, please visit the homepage at <http://www2.cohpa.ucf.edu/crim.jus/>.

A Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or a closely-related discipline from an accredited institution by the start of the appointment. A Juris Doctorate or terminal master's degree will not be considered for this position. A demonstrated ability to teach effectively in web-based courses, in addition to the required face-to-face classes. Candidates with a demonstrated ability to teach criminal courts, criminal law, criminal procedure, and/or prosecution and adjudication.

Applicants must complete the online Faculty Applicant Affirmation form and submit the following: (1) a letter of application indicating qualifications for the position; (2) a curriculum vitae; (3) copy of transcripts; and (4) contact information for three [up to five] professional references. The selected candidate will be required to provide official transcripts within thirty days of hire date.

The university requires that all applicants apply and submit all supporting documents through the UCF Online Recruitment System at <https://www.jobswithucf.com>. No paper applications will be considered. Please have all documents ready when applying so they can be attached at that time. Once the online submission process is finalized, the system does not allow applicants to submit additional documents at a later date.

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Candidates will not be considered until all of the above materials are received. Candidates are responsible for ensuring all materials have been uploaded correctly.

For further questions about this position, please contact Todd Bricker, at Todd.Bricker@ucf.edu.

As an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer, UCF encourages all qualified applicants to apply, including women, veterans, individuals with disabilities, and members of traditionally underrepresented populations. UCF's Equal Opportunity Statement can be viewed at: <http://www.oie.ucf.edu/documents/PresidentsStatement.pdf>. As a Florida public university, UCF makes all application materials and selection procedures available to the public upon request