

Faculty Vacancy
School of Criminal Justice
The University of Cincinnati

Assistant/Associate Professor Tenure-Track

The School of Criminal Justice at the University of Cincinnati is seeking applications for an Assistant/Associate Professor position, with the appointment starting August 15, 2020, although the start date is negotiable. The School offers specializations in the areas of crime prevention, policing, corrections, criminal justice, and criminology.

Essential Function: An Assistant or Associate Professor at the University of Cincinnati is expected to teach, conduct research, scholarly and other professional or creative activities. This position will support the University of Cincinnati's mission and commitment to excellence and diversity in our students, faculty, staff, and all of our activities.

Minimum Qualifications: Must have obtained a Doctorate or terminal degree from a regionally accredited college or university of recognized standing in Criminal Justice or a related discipline in the social or behavioral sciences, by the time of appointment.

Ideal Qualifications: Areas of specialization are open but preference will be given to applicants with teaching and research interests in crime prevention and criminology. Applicants must have a strong record of scholarship or provide evidence of the potential to develop a strong research program.

The University of Cincinnati is a Research I Institution that grants doctorates in 98 areas. The School of Criminal Justice grants the BS, MS, and PhD degrees. The School also houses the Criminal Justice Research Center and the Institutes for Crime Science and Corrections.
