

Assistant Professor Tenure Track (#C19-057)
Criminology and Criminal Justice

Central Connecticut State University invites applications for one full-time, Assistant Professor in the Criminology and Criminal Justice Department with expertise in innovative policing and/or criminal justice administration. The Criminology Department's mission is to lead the state of Connecticut in the creation and dissemination of theoretical, scientific, and practical knowledge of Criminal Justice and is a growing multi-disciplinary department offering a B.A. in Criminology and an M.S. in Criminal Justice. Candidates are expected to be committed to multiculturalism and working with a diverse student body.

Required Qualifications:

- A doctorate in Criminology, Criminal Justice or related field at the time of appointment from an accredited doctoral program. ABD considered with appointment at rank of Instructor unless doctorate is completed by August 2019.
- Excellent written and oral communication skills.
- Demonstrated commitment to serving culturally, ethnically and linguistically diverse communities

Preferred Qualifications:

- Ph.D. in Criminology, Criminal Justice or related field.
- Areas of specialization in policing and/or criminal justice administration.
- University teaching experience.
- A record of scholarly activity, e.g., publications and presentations at professional conferences. Acceptable publications and presentations are those that have been externally reviewed for appropriateness, e.g., peer-reviewed journal articles and conference presentations, edited book chapters or books. Self-published material will not qualify.
- Evidence of university and professional service, especially with underserved populations

The University: CCSU is one of four universities in the Connecticut State Colleges & Universities system. Excellent professors and a wide array of academic programs prepare students for success in whatever field they choose. As of fall 2018, CCSU serves approximately 11,822 students - 9,546 undergraduates, and 2,276 graduates. CCSU is richly diverse: more than 34 percent of students are of traditional minority heritage. Visit our web site at <http://www.ccsu.edu/>.

The Community: CCSU is located in New Britain, a city with a population of some 70,000, within a 10-minute drive to the state capital of culture-rich Hartford. CCSU is currently in a large-scale community engagement initiative, designed to more effectively embrace our communities as the "steward of central Connecticut." Pursuing a range of partnership arrangements with area businesses, schools, agencies, and more, this initiative will create significant new opportunities for student internships, faculty research, as well as an expanding array of cultural collaborations with the New Britain Symphony Orchestra, city theatres, the world-renowned New Britain Museum of American Art, and other area attractions.

Application and Appointment: For full consideration, applications must be received by March 1, 2019 for an August 2019 appointment. Salary and rank are commensurate with education and experience.

Incomplete applications will not be considered. To begin the application process, go to www.ccsu.edu/jobs or click on Apply Now and electronically submit the following:
