

Sam Houston State University

Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology

Visiting Assistant Professor Specialization in Race and Justice

The Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology is seeking candidates for one Visiting Assistant Professor position to begin Fall 2020. Candidates must have a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice, Psychology, Sociology, Public Administration, or a closely related academic field; ABD applicants will also be considered. The successful candidate will have expertise and a specialization in race and justice, will teach courses in the Department, and support the Department's new academic minor in Criminal Justice Equity and Inclusion. Preference will be given to candidates with on-line teaching experience. The Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology and SHSU are committed to promoting a campus culture that embraces diversity and inclusion; the successful candidate is expected to advance this commitment.

To ensure full consideration, applications must be submitted online at: <https://shsu.peopleadmin.com/> and should include a letter of interest, a current vita, and the names and contact information for a minimum of three references addressed to: Dr. William Wells, Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology, Sam Houston State University, Huntsville, Texas 77341-2296. Applications may also be submitted electronically to wmw005@shsu.edu. Review of materials will begin July 27, 2020 and will continue until the search is completed.
