

MARQUETTE UNIVERSITY

The Department of Social and Cultural Sciences is seeking an Adjunct Assistant Professor (non-tenure track) with expertise in one or more of the following areas: algorithmic bias, big data, or carceral systems. Critical approaches are encouraged. The ideal candidate will contribute to both the undergraduate Criminology and Law Studies major and the Master's in Criminal Justice Data Analytics program including introductory courses in criminology and/or legal studies. The ability to contribute to curriculum being developed around our university-wide Race, Ethnic and Indigenous Studies (REIS) program is an expectation of the position. The position carries a 4/4 teaching load and some service duties. This is a 9-month position with the expectation of appointment renewal for subsequent periods. The position is in person and will begin in August 2022.

A PhD in Criminology, Sociology, or related social science field is required by the time of appointment. A J.D. alone is not sufficient for this position. Applicants should demonstrate a commitment to diversity, equity, inclusion, and student success while working with diverse student populations.

The Department of Social and Cultural Sciences offers undergraduate majors in Anthropology, Criminology and Law Studies, Social Welfare and Justice, and Sociology. The department is committed to excellence in both teaching and scholarship. Please visit the department web site:
